Stephanie Slate's Unique Perspective on Traditional Arts Shines at 365 Foundation Gallery

LANSDALE, PA—Stephanie Slate, an artist known for her innovative revival of historic-artistic techniques, will showcase her artwork at the 365 Foundation Gallery at 305 W. Main Street in Lansdale from May 3rd to May 24th.

Slate's background is as diverse and colorful as her works. Coming from a family deeply rooted in traditional arts and crafts, she combines classical art forms with contemporary themes, setting herself apart from traditionalists in her lineage. Her unique perspective defies conventional perceptions of historical art forms and breathes new life into them, making them relevant and vital to contemporary society.

Natalie Venezia, Executive Director of the 365 Foundation, expressed admiration for Slate's work: "Stephanie Slate's approach revolutionizes our view of historical art forms. She preserves their essence while inspiring a new generation of artists and enthusiasts."

Slate's influence reaches galleries worldwide; recently winning the grand prize at the Living Image exhibition for 'The Hollowing'. Upcoming shows include exhibitions at the Center of Contemporary Printmaking and a curated show by the Halide Project featuring Slate's newer Photogravures.

Stephanie Slate brings a fresh perspective that magnifies respect for historical art forms while igniting excitement for future possibilities in the evolution of art. Don't miss this opportunity to experience her transformative artwork at the 365 Foundation Gallery.
